EFFORT TO DEFER ACTION OF BOARD

Will be Made by Committee of Citizens

Stock of Local Aspirants Fall in Contest for Superintendency of Schools.

SITUATION IS COMPLICATED.

Interest all over the city centers in the meeting of the school board tonight, and particularly in the election of the new superintendent of the public schools. It is freely intimated on all sides that a crisis in the affairs of the Paducah schools has been reached. It is understood that efforts are being made today to induce the board to defer the election until later in the month giving more time to investigate men, and it is probable that the efforts will be made clear up until the meeting tonight.

At least two prominent men in the city, whose affairs bring them in touch with educational conditions, know of men in the case who would be available and whose qualifications would be calculated to carry forward the school system to a higher state of efficiency. They are men who are interested in furthering the revival of interest in education which just now is sweeping over the south. It is believed that they could be secured if the proper effort is made to get their attention to the opening here.

It can be definitely announced that so far as three of the leading members of the board are concerned, the new superintendent if he is elected tonight, will be an out-of-town man. However, some of the local men have friends on the board, and it is probable that they will be placed in nomination. One local candidate has a strong following, and it is improbable that he will be ignored without an effort to be elected.

The members of the school board show a disposition to listen to all suggestions, but as they think they have had the subject under consideration for two months, they are going about the election resolutely. Interest in having the election deferred is manifested most strongly in the people who pay the taxes and who have children in the schools, and these people will be represented at the board meeting tonight.

C. C. & W. CLUB ELECTS ALL ITS OLD OFFICERS

The annual meeting of the Chess, Checker and Whist club was held last night and all officers were re-elected as follows: Dr. J. Q. Taylor, president; Charles Thompson, vice-president; Frank B. May, secretary; Nolan Van Culin, treasurer. Directors: Dr. J. Q. Taylor, Nolan Van Culin, Harry Meyers, Henry Diehl and R. L. Reeves. The club is the only successful one ever maintained in Paducah. It has been in existence since 1900 and has grown wonderfully. There are now 190 members. A limit is placed on the membership and no one under 21 years old is admitted to the club membership. The treasury shows a surplus of $2,000.

Many persons were ridden down and badly injured. The public is barred from admittance to the palace by a cordon of troops. At noon the douma formally opened and M. Golovin, a liberal, was chosen president.

There is only one kind of a newspaper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

HOLLAND'S TEAM TO PLAY CULLEY'S

If Agreement Can be Reached
With Manager

Paducah Has Another Aspirant to Represent City on Diamond
Next Summer.

PLAYERS FROM I. C. SHOPS.

John Holland, the one-legged catcher, who played two seasons of fast baseball thus handicapped in a Kansas league, is to manage a Paducah team this season and promises nothing but the best. He will challenge the Culley team, to play for the privilege of the ball park, if the consent of Manager Trail, of the team, and Manager John S. Blecker, of the traction company, can be secured.

John Holland is a Paducah boy and learned baseball on Paducah's commons. He had his left foot cut off above the ankle railroaded, but got a cork leg. Soon he was catching again, and catching professional ball. He is a fairly good runner and covers home plate perfectly. With the stick he is a star.

"I have some good men at the railroad shops who will play in my team," Holland stated. "I have Lon Hedges for pitcher. We expect to get up a team which will beat anything in Paducah and hope that the Culley team will accept our challenge. If we are better ball players and can represent the city better than they, we should have the park."

Lon Hedges pitched one season of phenomenal ball for Milwaukee in the American association and later was in the Three I league. Lately he has been out of the game. Holland works at the Illinois Central shops.

BROADWAY FIRE CAUSES DAMAGE

Anderson's Cab Stand Office on South Side of Broadway Between Fourth and Fifth the Scene of Blaze

FIREMEN DO EXCELLENT WORK.

At 5 o'clock this morning when Robert Winston, the negro office boy at Harry Anderson's cab stand, 408 1/2 Broadway, went out of the office to get a breath of fresh air on the street he left a bright fire in the stove. When called back 20 minutes later, he found it a roaring furnace with firemen fighting the fire. The damage will amount to about $250 for Anderson in accounts, furniture, etc., with no insurance. To W. H. Patterson, owner of the building, the damage will amount to about $200 fully covered by insurance. Ellis & Williams' barber shop, 408 Broadway, was damaged by water to the extent of about $50. The fire is presumed to have started from a defective flue.

Stationman Dan Bailey, of company No. 1, burned his left hand by fighting the fire inside with a stream. His hand was knocked against hot embers. The fire company did excellent work in extinguishing the fire, which gained great headway and was hard to get at on account of its location.

FATHER LEAVES FAMILY STRANDED

After living off the combined wages of his 15-years-old twin boys since January, George Davis, of 1802 Bridge street, it is alleged, disappeared when one of his younger sons became ill and the entire family was thrown on the charity club. Davis lived at Mayfield until his wife died in July. In January he came here with his 15-years-old twins and two other sons, five and ten years old, respectively. The twins secured employment in the curtain pole factory and made $7 together. This amount kept the family until last week when the 10-year-old son became ill.

SACRIFICE SALE OF SADDLERY COMPANY

Purchasers Will Take Plant to Cairo and Operate it in That City if the Deal Goes Through Today

PAY SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT.

Negotiations for the purchase of the Paducah Saddlery company's plant and stock by Julius Harris and Isador Klein, traveling salesmen for M. Michael & Bro., are proceeding today between the prospective purchasers and the Paducah Banking company and the Globe Bank & Trust company. It is probable that the deal will be closed tonight. The property will be taken to Cairo, Ill., and operated there.

It was stated by officials of the company today that the plant will be sold at a sacrifice of about 24 per cent. and the creditors will receive something over 75 per cent. of the face of their claims.

The sale of the Paducah Saddlery company and its removal to Cairo is a blow to Paducah trade. The concern was doing well, the officers are men of integrity and business ability, and there seemed nothing in the way of success until this unfortunate complication arose. Paducah wholesalers, especially, regret the occurrence.

The company employed from 30 to 60 men.

St. Louis parties were here today to purchase and an effort was made again to reorganize without success.

DISMISSED WITH REPRIMAND.

Walter Taylor Not Held for Malicious Mischiefs.

Walter Taylor, of the Dixie-Kippling Mills, charged with malicious mischief, was dismissed this morning in the police court. He was accused of driving a nail into a banister down which Little Maple Abernathy slid, badly lacerating himself.

"The prosecution has failed to prove you guilty of malicious intent," Police Judge Cross stated, "and I will have to dismiss the warrant. But I want to say this: 'It showed carelessness on your part. You should have taken pains to notify the boys of the nail.'"

Taylor was represented by Attorney Hal S. Corbett.

NEARING CLOSE OF THE EVIDENCE

Little More Testimony in Chief
For Harry Thaw

Jerome Concludes Cross-Examination of Expert Evans and Has Another on Stand.

MRS. WM. THAW PROBABLY NEXT.

New York, March 5.—Progress of the Thaw case was slow today as far as sensational interest was concerned.

A long stride forward in the Thaw trial was taken when District Attorney Jerome announced that his exhaustive cross examination of Dr. Evans had been concluded. Evans had been under fire since Wednesday morning last. He was succeeded on the stand by Dr. Charles G. Wagner, Birmingham, who accompanied Evans on most of his visits to Thaw in the Tombs.

Mrs. William Thaw is expected to be the next figure in the witness chair. With Mrs. Thaw's testimony in, the defense will practically have completed its case and it seems likely that the state's case in rebuttal may begin before the end of the week.

Puzzled Over the Rebuttal.

Just what Jerome will be able to prove on Thaw remains quite as much a mystery as ever. He complained today in seeking a broad interpretation of rules of evidence by Justice Fitzgerald that if he should call any of the defense's alienists in rebuttal they might refuse on the ground of professional privilege not to answer any question put to them. This seems to indicate that Jerome's threat to call Allan McLane Hamilton in rebuttal carries with it the possibility that Hamilton may not testify, for at the time he made an examination of Thaw in the Tombs he was in the employ of the prisoner's counsel.

It is not exactly clear to the mind to what extent the district attorney can go in disproving Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's testimony. He has admitted that even if he could show White was out of the country at the time of his alleged experience with Evelyn Nesbit in his Twenty-fourth street studio, he would not be allowed to do so on the ground that it would be a collateral fact.

To Call Evelyn's Brother.

It appears, however, that the prosecutor can call any one to contradict Mrs. Thaw's story in cases where she said she made certain statements to a third party. In this connection Jerome has indicated he will call Howard Nesbit to testify that his sister told him Thaw had treated her cruelly because she would not tell lies about White.

Evans left the witness stand subject to recall for re-direct examination. Evans admitted that Thaw had insane knowledge of what killed White. The New York statutes provide that to be exempt from punishment for crime an insane person must be so demented as not to know the nature or quality of his act or to know the act is wrong.

Wagner, also declared Thaw had irrational knowledge of what was transpiring on the roof garden. He believes that the man's insanity dated from the time Evelyn Nesbit told him her story in Paris in 1904. Wagner created quite a stir in court by using the present tense in responding to a question by Jerome as to what form of insanity Thaw "has or had."

Wagner Says Thaw "Is" Insane.

Wagner declared Thaw "is" suffering from symptoms which lead to ward a melancholic state and a state of dementia praecox. When asked to describe the latter phase, Wagner said it covered such a wide field of dementia as to be difficult of strict definition. Wagner declared Thaw's condition of mind at the time of the shooting was a result of one of the insanities of adolescence. He would not go further than this in an attempt to classify the exact form.

The district attorney again continued his somewhat puzzling tactics. His questioning of Evans seemed to have the purpose of showing Thaw never was insane to the extent contemplated by criminal statutes of this state. Again with Wagner he pointed toward the same end at one time and at another seemed desirous of having Wagner admit Thaw was suffering from forms of insanity which might not be curable.

RHEUMATISM

AN ACID BLOOD POISON

Rheumatism is an acid blood poison, and the causes that produce it are often silently accumulating in the system for years. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general inactive condition of the system, leaves the refuse and waste matter, which should be carried off, to sour and form uric acid, which is absorbed into the blood. When the blood is in this acid-charged condition, it deposits the poisons and irritating particles with which it is loaded in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones. Then Rheumatism gets possession of the system, and life is made miserable by its pains, aches and discomforts. The changing of the weather, exposure to cold and dampness, etc., always increase the trouble, and so severe does the pain become that quick relief must be had. A good liniment or plaster is often helpful, but it should be remembered that relief from such treatment is only temporary, because the trouble is in the blood and cannot be removed by external applications. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by ridding the blood of the cause. It goes down into the circulation and by invigorating and purifying the blood of the acid-poison and sending a stream of fresh, rich blood to all parts, relieves the pain, reduces the inflammation, and permanently cures this painful disease. S. S. S. is the only safe treatment for Rheumatism, because it does not contain a particle of mineral in any form to damage the system. RESENTS HOLDUP; SLAIN BY ROBBERS

Colored Miner is Shot on an M. P. Train

Two Men at Point of Revolvers Go Through Passengers Near Pittsburg, Kansas.

PEOPLE TALK OF LYNCHING.

Pittsburg, Kansas, March 5.—The Missouri Pacific passenger train, which left here at 7:20 last evening, was held up by two men in disguise. Lou Jeff, a colored miner, was killed because he protested, and W. L. Westlake, of Toledo, Ohio, who with his wife and two children had been visiting relatives in Kansas, was shot through the hand by a stray bullet, fired at the negro.

The men were disguised only with false mustaches and goatees. They boarded the train here at the station and began working the train as soon as it passed the Kansas City southern shops. They commenced at the smoking car, and one walked ahead with a 44 calibre revolver in each hand, and quietly asked the passengers to "shell out" to the man behind, who was closely following. They were not far behind the train auditor, and followed him into the ladies coach.

Negro's Fatal Stand.
When they came to Jeff in the ladies' coach he at once grasped the idea that it was a holdup, and after the auditor had passed him he pulled a revolver and took a shot at the fore most robber, who shot twice at him. The first shot went wild and struck Westlake, but the second shot struck the negro in the head and killed him instantly. They then quietly made the auditor stand and deliver and hurriedly left the train as it entered the yard at Cornhill.

Westlake, the wounded passenger, was taken to Libera, where his hand was dressed by a surgeon of the company. A switch engine with a posse of officers was sent to Cornhill, which is four miles from here. The country surrounding Pittsburg is thickly settled, and is dotted with scores of villages and mining camps. It is reported that news that a miner was killed by bandits has spread rapidly and that the miners are aroused and will make an attempt to capture and lynch the men.

There were few passengers on the train and the robbers secured only a little over $100 in cash and a few watches and revolvers.

Pay Day on the Plantation.

"The men stand in the front rank, stealthily chewing their quids of tobacco far back in their mouths, and hitching up their loose trousers. The field-women stand behind, like the men, in clothing soiled from the field work. In separate groups stand the indoor workers, stable men, blacksmiths, carpenters, etc. The young boys and girls, who carry water to the fields, stand together, giggling over their importance. The old women and men, whose working and pay days are over, huddle near enough to hear and see what goes on. The sickly ones from the quarters are there, and the women with young babies, whom they suckle as they shift from one foot to the other and pass remarks on the paying off."

In this manner Grace King describes a plantation pay day in her story, "The Clodhopper" in the March McClure's. One of the field women, "The Clodhopper," is the heroine of the tale, and the nobility of her nature is finely brought out in her struggles and sacrifices for her boy. The writer also shows that the soil and its hard labor may be a blessing instead of the brutalizing influence it is so often deemed.

THEATRICAL NOTES

"Slaves of the Orient" Tonight.

The Gertrude Ewing company began a week's engagement at The Kentucky last night presenting the Russian play "In the Shadow of the Czar." The seats were sold long before time for the curtain to rise and the theater was well crowded. Miss Ewing and her company are pleasantly remembered by theatergoers, as was attested by the welcome accorded them last night. The play was prettily staged and handsomely costumed and was well acted by an evenly balanced company. Miss Ewing as La Tisha, the French actress, had the most important role, and handled it in a creditable manner. She is earnest in her work, and together with a pleasing appearance and strong delivery, she left no doubts in the minds of her audience as to her ability. She has surrounded herself with a capable company, headed by Mr. Louis Dean, who was her leading man two years ago. He has a handsome appearance and possesses a powerful voice, an excellent quality over which he seems to have perfect control. The part played by Mr. Dean last night was a thankless one, as it does not elicit the sympathy of the audience, and yet by his careful and artistic handling of it, he showed himself to be an actor of ability, and won much well deserved favorable comment. Mr. J. G. Stutzman, in the part of Siskelof, the minister of police, showed considerable ability and handled a difficult character in a pleasing manner. Mr. William N. Smith as the spy, deserves mention for the careful and painstaking manner in which he handled a peculiar and unsatisfactory character. We hope to see some better things from Mr. Smith during the week. The balance of the company were pleasing in unimportant roles. The specialties by Mr. Drew Simmons, the McNutt Twins and Mr. Charles Calville were all enthusiastically enjoyed and added much to the enjoyment of the audience. Miss Ewing has a splendid company and will undoubtedly receive a liberal patronage nightly, which she well deserves. Several new plays are promised during the week. The offering for tonight is "The Slaves of the Orient," a sensational Turkish melodrama for which the company carries special scenery and costumes.

"The Gingerbread Man."

The members of "The Gingerbread Man" company, the Ranken-Sloane musical fairiesque that will be the attraction at the Kentucky on Thursday night of this week, are experiencing a new and pleasing sensation. So imbued have they become with the spirit of the various characters, Kris Kringle, Margery Dab, Jack Horner, Simple Simon, Sally Lunn, etc., the merry jingle of Christmas bells, the prevailing influence of living in Santa Claus' land during the action of the play, that every day is a Christmas day with them. This feeling of good cheer is experienced by the principals and chorus, and many costly and beautiful presents are being given and received. Manager Rice, although pleased at the good feeling existing among the member of his company, is worried over the fact that all their salary is going for presents. "If this feeling keeps up," says Mr. Rice, "I will have to get a new play or engage a new company every month. It is only within the past week or so that I have realized the full significance of this feeling, for every day I have been compelled to give them advances in salary."

CHILD WAS BURNED TO DEATH.

Four-Year-Old Hazel Reed Set Fire to Clothing-While Lighting Lamp.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Her screams for help drowned by the rattle of machinery on the floor below, 4-year-old Hazel Reed was roasted to death in her home on the second floor of 124 Van Sicklen avenue, after her clothing had been ignited by the match with which she tried to light the ground floor is a laundry, where a huge ironing machine smooths out collars and cuffs and makes a terrific noise from morning till night.

The little girl was left alone in the parlor when her mother, Mrs. Ella Reed, went to the basement to get a fresh supply of coal for the kitchen stove. The mother was not gone more than fifteen minutes, and the first warning she had of an accident was when she saw the body of her little girl lying in a room adjoining the parlor, burned almost to a crisp. No one in the building or in the building adjoining heard any outcry until Mrs. Reed raised her voice in alarm. Then all the neighbors and the folks who tot in the laundry below came rushing into the apartment.

It was noted by those who flocked into the place that only the girl was burned. The furniture and hang-

Over half a million are suffering from the awful grip—in New York State there are nearly 200,000 cases, in Chicago 100,000.

Mr. W. A. Stagg, 1063 Pacific Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., who is vigorous at the age of 73, has been cured several times of grip by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey taken as prescribed and has also been saved by its use from the bad after-effects of the disease.

Mr. Stagg writes:—"For thirty years DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has been my one medicine. I have always used it as prescribed and it has proved a valuable aid, as it has not only cured several attacks of grip but has prevented any bad after-effects. I cannot speak too highly of what DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has done for me, and will always keep it to stimulate and tone up my system and as a sure cure for colds and grip. Although 73 years old, I am hale and hearty, due to the judicious use of DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY."

HOSTS OF GOOD PEOPLE

All Over This Blessed Land Rise Up and Praise Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines.

Common Gratitude Prompts This Sentiment in Favor of Dr. Pierce's Medicines.

These people, so ready and anxious to recommend Dr. Pierce's Medicines, have themselves been cured, or some friend or loved one has been cured, by these medicines. Naturally, a sense of gratitude prompts such persons to recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to other afflicted ones. Notwithstanding that these medicines have been on general sale, in drug and medicine stores for more than two decades, yet their sale continues to grow as it could not were they not medicines of more than ordinary merit.

Although base attacks have sometimes been made upon Dr. Pierce's medicines, which temporarily injured their sale, as in the case of the maliciously false, malicious and libelous article published in 1904 in the Lancet of Philadelphia, yet their sale is greater to-day than ever. The publishers of that paper were brought to account and judgment obtained against them. The falsity of its statements were proven in open court and judgment was obtained against the publishers for a substantial amount.

Thereupon Dr. Pierce decided to take a bold step and publish to the whole world a full list of the ingredients entering into his medicines, and this completely confounded his malicious traducers and vindicated both the Doctor and his medicines. In consequence, his medicines have enjoyed a popularity and increase in sale of late, amounting almost to a boom, and it is believed that this greatly increased demand is due largely to the fact of Dr. Pierce's open and honest way of treating his patrons and patients by reposing confidence in those who trust in him and his medicines. He has no secrets to withhold from them. He publishes the composition of his medicines openly and above board, so that all who use them may know exactly what they are taking. Thus they are placed in a class all by themselves and cannot be considered as either secret or patented medicines, for they are in fact neither.

WHAT THEY CURE. People often ask: "What do Dr. Pierce's medicines cure?" Briefly, the answer is that "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent purgative, cathartic, and blood purifier, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous membranes, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, liver and bladder curing a large percentage of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nasal passages, the throat, larynx, bronchia, stomach (as catarrh, dyspepsia), bowels (as mucous diarrhea), liver, uterus or other pelvic organs. Even in the chronic or ulcerative stages of these affections, it is generally successful in affecting cures. In fact the "Golden Medical Discovery" is without doubt, the most successful constitutional remedy for all forms of catarrhal diseases known to modern medical science. In chronic Nasal Catarrh, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy should be used for washing and cleansing out the nasal passages while taking the "Discovery," for its blood purifying and specific healing effects upon the mucous lining membranes. This combined local and general treatment will cure a very large percentage of the worst cases of chronic nasal catarrh, no matter of how many years' standing they may be.

As to the "Favorite Prescription," it is advised as the cure of one class of diseases only—those weaknesses, derangements and irregularities peculiar to women. It is a powerful yet gently acting, invigorating tonic and nerve tonic, for weak, worn-out, over-worked women—no matter what has caused the breakdown. "Favorite Prescription" will be stated in confirmation of this firm conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvellous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach, tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Not less marvellous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of unsolicited testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of leucorrhea, painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus and other displacements, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines had failed.

Both these world-famed medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots, found in our American forests. The processes employed in their manufacture were carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming ingredients. A full list of their ingredients is printed upon each of their wrappers. They are both made of such native medicinal roots as have received the strongest endorsement and praise for their curative virtues from the most prominent writers on Materia Medica in this country. What is said of their power to cure the several diseases for which they are advised may be easily learned by sending your name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little booklet which he has compiled, containing copious extracts from numerous standard medical books, which are considered as authorities by physicians of the several schools of practice, for their guidance in prescribing. It is FREE to ALL. A postal card request will bring it.

You don't have to rely solely upon the manufacturer's say-so as to the power of Dr. Pierce's medicines to cure, as with other medicines sold through drug stores. You have the disinterested testimony of a host of the leading medical writers and teachers. Send for this copious testimony. It can be relied upon to be truthful because it is entirely disinterested.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good" as they are the original Little Liver Pills first put up by Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago, by old-fashioned, not graded, quality. They are tiny sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Starves For Sake of Education

New York.—He was only four feet tall and weighed less than seventy pounds. Yet the score of juvenile offenders who were awaiting to be sentenced in the Children's Court thought he was the greatest hero on earth. Many red cheeks were stained with tears as the youngster related a sad tale of starvation, exile, abandonment and ambition. The prisoner at the bar was Joseph Cohen, ten years old, of Koplan, Russia. He was charged with being a vagrant.

Joseph came to New York two years ago from Russia. For two years, night after night, he has slept in the dark, lonely alleys of the Jewish quarters. His ambition was to learn to speak English and later to become an engineer. Often he went hungry for days. He was arrested a few days ago, being asleep on the floor of a Russian street tenement.

Saw Parents Massacred

Magistrate Olmsted was about to commit Joseph to a home, when he spoke up and said he wished to put in a defense.

"I was compelled to sleep in the hallway because I had no other place," said the prisoner calmly in good English. "I came here from Russia two years ago with a friend who later deserted me. While in Russia a massacre took place, and before my eyes my dear mother and father were killed by the Czar's soldiers. I made up my mind to become a great man, and for that reason came to New York.

"I went to Public School No. 7, on Chrystie street during the day and went to hear good lectures in the evenings. Sometimes I helped the fish peddlers near the Williamsburg bridge, and they would give me a few cents. I obtained my sippers in a saloon on Broome street, helping the bootblack there in return. When 10 o'clock came around I secured several bags and cheap clothes, which I used as pillows while sleeping on the bare floor of different tenement houses.

"Charity Doesn't Suit Me."

"If I couldn't find a hallway, I would creep into some cellar. This I have kept up for almost two years. I didn't do anything wrong, and I guess I ought to be discharged. You see, I am ambitious and want to be an engineer some day. It is a great profession and I can earn a large salary through it."

One of the court officers who heard the boy's story asked him about some lectures which had been delivered the spectators some of the subjects days. Joseph quickly gave the date and place of each lecture and told what were discussed by the lecturers.

The boy was committed to the care of the Children's Society, where last night he enjoyed a warm bed and a good supper.

"This charity business doesn't suit me," said Joseph as he left the courtroom.

WASP IS COMING.

Little Gunboat Will Reach Memphis on March 10.

New Orleans, March 5.—The United States gunboat Wasp left here at 10 o'clock this morning with Paducah as her ultimate destination. She is on a recruiting cruise, and has just completed a six weeks' trip along the Atlantic coast. She is going up the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers as far as she can go, stopping for a time at by Chief Boatswain J. S. Croghan, who reports to the naval recruiting officers stationed in the large cities. Likely recruits are picked up on the way and duly enlisted at the stations. The Wasp will reach Memphis March 10 and will report to Lieut. Com. McGrath at Memphis, the recruiting chief of the Mississippi district, who will direct the movements of the Wasp, and has received orders to proceed north, stopping to call at Vicksburg.

MANY CHILDREN IN CONGESTED DISTRICTS VICIMS OF CONSUMPTION

S. Goodfriend, a specialist from New York, declares that ten per cent of the children in the congested districts of Cleveland are victims of tuberculosis.

The same deplorable conditions have been found to exist in other cities, and the eradication of the white plague among children has been started in earnest. Sanitary conditions are being improved, roof treatment, affording fresh air, is given, and nourishing food is being supplied.

Children with weak lungs are susceptible to colds, which cause the lungs to become sore. The tubercular germ settles in the sore places and sets up what is called a "mixed" infection, the starting point of consumption.

Parents are warned against giving children cold or cold remedies containing opiates, as narcotics only stultify the lungs and render them more susceptible to the deadly tubercular germ. The following simple formula, the ingredients of which can be obtained from any good prescription druggist at small cost, will break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable: Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), one-half ounce; Glycerine, two ounces; good Whisky, a half pint. Use in teaspoonful doses every four hours.

An eminent authority on lung trouble says if this simple and effective formula was known and generally used, throat, lung and bronchial affections would seldom reach an acute stage. Care should be used in selecting pure ingredients, and to avoid substitution, it is best that they be purchased separately and mixed in your own home. The Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) should be purchased in the original half-ounce vials, put up expressly for druggists to dispense. Each vial is securely sealed in a round wooden case, with engraved wrapper, with the name—Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure). Guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act of June 30, 1906, serial number 451. Prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, plainly printed thereon. There are many rank imitations of Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) which are put up under similar names and style of package. Do not accept these as a substitute for the Pure Virgin Oil of Pine, as they will invariably produce nausea and never effect the desired results.

TAFT IS LEADING IN POPULARITY.

West Seems to Favor Him Next to Roosevelt

Advertisements Using United States Flag Prohibited by State Laws.

PRESIDENT'S FAMINE RELIEF.

Washington, March 5.—Reports coming from the west are giving great encouragement to the friends of the Taft presidential movement. Koca interest is being taken here in political circles in the polls which are being made of Republican members of western legislatures. Strong sentiment for the secretary of war is opening the eyes of those who thought that the great demand for the nomination of Roosevelt in 1908 could not be diverted to Secretary Taft.

Advices from South Dakota and Kansas, regarded as typical of the feeling in the west, indicate that in the event President Roosevelt cannot be persuaded to accept another nomination, Secretary Taft will be second choice and receive the votes which would be given to President Roosevelt. In South Dakota the poll of the legislature gave Taft forty-six votes, more than all the other candidates combined received; and in Kansas, where it is reported that a Roosevelt delegation will be sent to the next convention, it is believed that as soon as the people become convinced that the president cannot be induced to accept another nomination the Roosevelt strength will shift to Mr. Taft.

Recent revelations during the investigations of the interstate commerce commission will have far-reaching effect in strengthening the Roosevelt sentiment in the Republican party. Reports received from all sections of the country show that the great masses of Republicans are unwilling to take a step backward in the policies with which the president has been so closely identified, and that either he or some one like Mr. Taft, who represents his ideas, will be demanded by the next Republican convention.

Flag in Advertising.

That the states may pass laws prohibiting the use of the flag of the United States for advertising purposes, was declared by the supreme court of the United States today in deciding the case of Nicholas V. Halter and Henry V. Hayward, coming to the court from the supreme court of Nebraska. Halter and Hayward are engaged in the liquor business in Omaha and were prosecuted under a law of the state on the charge of selling beer in bottles decorated with the national colors. They were fined $50 each, and on appeal to the state supreme court to verdict was sustained. They admitted all the facts charged, but pleaded the unconstitutionality of the law. Justice Harlan delivered the opinion of the court, affirming the decision of the state courts. In the course of his opinion Justice Harlan upheld the right of the state to protect the flag, the emblem of the nation's power, against indignities. He said that the use of the flag as an advertisement on beer bottles cheapens and degrades it, and the court was unwilling to let that legislation prohibiting such a use of the national colors is an abridgement of personal rights as contemplated by the national constitution. Justice Peckham dissented.

No Deficit This Time.

Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, chairman of the committee on appropriations, announced that instead of facing a deficit in the treasury at the close of the fiscal year of 1908, as seemed imminent at one time there would be a surplus of $20,000,000 at that time. The total appropriations made at the present session of congress, he said, aggregate apparently $919,948,679.63.

For Famine Relief.

Declaring that Russia has been a friend of America in the past, President Roosevelt, in a letter to the Russian famine relief committee of New York, made public today appeals for contributions in behalf of the famine sufferers in that country. With the letter he sent his own check for $100. He calls attention to the "literally unparalleled prosperity of the country," and hopes that the people out of their abundance will give generously on this occasion.

Ollie James for House Leader.

Ollie James was strongly tipped as a possible candidate for Democratic leader of the house in the Sixtieth congress. If he enters the race it will become interesting, as there are prospects already of a lively fight, and the addition of a candidate from Kentucky would draw support from both Williams and De Armond. James admitted that several representatives had broached the subject to him. His success in getting the 3-cent fare bill through the house Saturday night has started quite a boom for him, for leader.

Puts Bugs in Beds to Sell Springs.

Glasgow, Ky., March 5.—A new swindler has made his appearance along the Kentucky and Tennessee border, and his victims are numbered by the score. In fact, almost every one he has visited has been victimized. The man sets an inferior grade of bed springs. He enters a home and asks permission to examine the feather beds. With his knife he rips open the tick and thrusts in his hand and brings forth a handful of feathers, mixed with bugs, which he had taken from his pocket. These he exhibits to the astonished household. In these homes, it is alleged, he placed springs for $10 that could have been purchased for $4.50, taking the bug infested feathers in exchange for the springs.

Don't Fear Grand Jury.

Princeton, Ky., March 5.—Another incident in the Western Kentucky tobacco war is reported from Otter Pond, in the southeastern part of this county, where a band of men last night broke into two cars on a siding and ruined tobacco consigned to the American Snuff company plant at Hopkinsville. Fifteen masked men were seen riding south of there last night, and it is thought they are the ones who did the work, which was not revealed until daylight today.

The two car loads of tobacco had been loaded by George Martin and his tenants, and were ready to be taken to Hopkinsville. Altogether some 16 hogheads of fine weed were rolled out, the hoops broken and the tobacco scattered about and trampled until practically worthless.

There is some question here as to whether the railroad or the consignors will have to stand the loss, and there is a possibility of litigation on this point. It is reported that the railroad company had issued bills of lading, and if this is true, the loss will fall on it. The doors of the cars being officially sealed the crime is made much greater. There have been several cases within the last few weeks in which tobacco not pledged to the growers' organization has been destroyed by night riders, and when circuit court convenes here tomorrow Judge Gordon is expected to deliver a hot charge on the subject.

"I defy you," said the beautiful girl, "and shall sue you at once for divorce."

"You cannot do that," he sneered, coldly, thinking to stun her, "for our marriage was never legal."

"Very well, then," she replied, not in the least perturbed. "I will sue you then for breach of promise."

Almost Lynching When Truth is Known About Drugging Young Girls

Married, O. March 5.—A lynching seemed imminent here this evening when a large crowd of people surrounded the city jail, where Walter W. Savage, of Syracuse, N. Y., and his accomplice, Andy Coruthers, were imprisoned.

Savage is an advertising sketch artist, and has been here about a week, occupying a window in the Dime Saving Society building. He has made a specialty of getting young girls to allow him to make their pictures.

About 1 o'clock this afternoon he had six young girls, between the ages of 12 and 14 years old, in his room, gave them whisky, wine and beer and administered some kind of a drug. At 6 o'clock this evening the police discovered that something was wrong and upon investigating found all six of the girls unconscious lying on the floor. The girls and the two men, Savage and Coruthers, having been found in the room, were taken to the city jail.

Physicians were summoned to make an examination of the girls and emetics were administered, and at about 7 o'clock they had partly regained consciousness. The girls claim that the men forced them to drink. The physicians are convinced that two of the girls are the victims of an attempted assault, and at this time are in doubt as to the others, as they have not as yet completely recovered from the effects of the drug.

Under guard of the entire police force the men were rushed to the county jail which is on the fifth floor of the court house building. The sheriff and his deputies, assisted by the police are guarding the two prisoners, and at this time it seems that a lynch ing will be averted, although the feeling of the populace is very intense.

TOSSES HIS GOLD INTO RIVER.

St. Louis Capitalist Throws a Thousand Dollars Away.

San Bernardino, Cal.—Somewhere in the bottom of the Mojave river he two sacks containing $500 in gold each. George H. Dunham, a St. Louis capitalist, tossed the money into the river to save himself from drowning.

Dunham had been on the desert with Paul Biddle, a mining promoter, to look at a group of claims. Samples of ore from the group had so pleased him that he promised to pay Biddle $1,000 in gold for an interest in the claims if they proved satisfactory after he had made a personal inspection of them.

Dunham had the money in sacks and buckled the sacks into the inside pockets of a heavy lined khaki coat. As the men were fording the Mojave river their wagon was overturned and Dunham was swept down stream.

While struggling against the current, the weight of the gold handicapped him, and, after a desperate effort to reach shore with it, he finally released the treasure.

Biddle and the team easily gained shore. He was much disturbed over the loss of the money and he and

Dunham spent half a day dragging the river bottom, but without result. It is Biddle's belief that the money will never be recovered, for the sands he says, will completely bury it.

Governor Sues Himself for Rent.

Lincoln, Neb., March 5.—Governor George L. Sheldon has surprised the state by having a suit instituted in the supreme court against himself for $100 for one month's rent of the executive mansion which he has occupied since becoming governor.

The proposition is a startlingly unique one. The suit, of course, is purely a test one.

Governor Sheldon has discovered that the constitution declares the governor shall receive $2,500 a year, with no perquisites. He therefore declares he cannot see that he has a right to occupy the handsome governor's mansion at the expense of the state and has had the suit brought to see if such is the case.

The mansion, which is furnished by the state to the governor, is one of the most handsome in Lincoln. It is a big three-story frame house, with large, commodious rooms, ball and billiard rooms on the third floor and long, deep verandas. It was built ten or fifteen years ago at a cost of about $40,000 and was bought seven years ago by the state. Since then the various governors have occupied it without question as to their constitutional right.

Governor Sheldon says he proposes to enforce every law on the statute books of the state of Nebraska, and it therefore would hardly be consistent for him to be violating the law by occupying a handsome mansion at the expense of the state and contrary to law.

He has placed $100 as a fair rental per month for the big mansion and has had Attorney-General Thompson bring suit on behalf of the state to recover that amount, declaring that Mr. Sheldon is unlawfully occupying the house.

The consequence of the suit, should it be won by the state, might prove rather astounding. Governor Sheldon, of course, would undoubtedly move out, as on a salary of $2,500 a year he could hardly afford to pay half of it for rent.

As a result of the suit, Governor Sheldon has been dubbed "Honest George."

CLINTON BROOKS LEIGH.

The Deseret Evening News of Salt Lake City, in an editorial pays a beautiful tribute to the late Clinton Brooks Leigh, that his friends throughout Paducah will appreciate. The tribute is especially forceful as the News is the Mormon organ and Mr. Leigh was an anti-Mormon paper. While strong in his views, rendering not one jot or tittle to the enemy, he was always courteous, and that he made friends and not enemies the following words go to show:

"Clinton B. Leigh! What a splendid example of sterling and honorable manhood he was! Not many years a citizen of this state, yet one who learned to love it much and with voice and pen proclaimed its greatness. A native of Kentucky, he possessed all the old time ideas of southern chivalry and high regard for womanhood. Polite, courteous and debonair, affable, gentle and all round good fellow, in the more staid sense of the word. His friends came near approximating the number of acquaintance he could boast, and they were very many. In his home he was uncommonly kind, a husband and a father who ruled his little household by the magic wand of love, rather than by the scepter of authority. Shadows had often fallen across his pathway, but out of the clouds he ever smiled, and into the sunlight he came again with new hope and faith. The somber emblems of mourning had not yet been put away by the family when this heavier affliction came with terrible suddenness upon them. The crushing force of the blow enlists the full sympathy of an entire community in their behalf and now that 'Thirty'—the newspaper man's sign of 'the end'—has so unexpectedly been written on the last page of Life's copy, may his sleep be sweet and undisturbed till the great awakening when the trump shall sound for the good and just to arise and shine."

No newspaper suppresses news, whether that news is favorable or unfavorable to its chosen policies. The fact that a sheet allows as important a news item as a London county council election, in which the policies of 18 years standing are overwhelmingly rebuked, to go unmentioned for three days except to bear false witness against papers that do publish it, shows that the particular sheets do not fit the definition of a newspaper.

We have yet to be accused by a reputable newspaper or a truthful person of publishing foreign news that did not come through the regular channels, without crediting it.

Senator Spooner has resigned his seat in the United States senate to resume his law practice. For once Wisconsin's senators are in accord in a matter of party policy.

The Americanization of British municipal elections came just in time to avert the Anglicization of American municipalities.

Municipal ownership of transporwhich "padded out" the account in yesterday's SUN of the municipal election in London last Saturday, certainly must be prompt and efficient to have gotten up its figures so quickly after the election; for all the Sunday papers (always saving and excepting those published in Paducah) contained reports of the London election identical in substance to that published by THE SUN Monday evening. Those papers using the same news service as THE SUN had the same story, word for word. The election occurred Saturday; the count was made Saturday night, and reports, gathered from every precinct in London, were sent to America at what must have been midnight or after. Then, it seems, that the "bureau" got the news off the cable fixed it up, and sent it broadcast to all the papers in the United States, both associated press and Scripps-McRae, and they had it printed in their papers three hours after it came across the water. And, if the news was "padded" by a "bureau," the truth has not yet come out; for those papers which deal with news are still publishing the same account; and those which deal with views exclusively, are doing nothing but frothing at the mouth. That "bureau" certainly is swift-swifter than Paducah Sunday papers; for, although THE SUN had an article Saturday afternoon on the progress of the election that day, the people of Paducah had to wait until Monday evening to learn from THE SUN the result of the election.

Unfortunate, indeed, will it be, if the petty feud between the board of public works and the sewer department brings permanent injury to the city sewer system. It has been less than two months since the sewer inspector was compelled to appeal to Mayor Yelzer for assistance, which was refused him by the chairman of the board of public works. He required oil and waste for the engine at the pumping station, but the chairman, who is invested with discretion between meetings of the board, declined to recognize the sewer inspector. At that time the engine and pump were going day and night to keep the water from backing up in the sewers and filling all the cellars in Paducah. The urgency of the matter was manifested when Mayor Yelzer broke a rule and promptly issued a requisition, saying that he could not afford to let a departmental misunderstanding bring hardship to the citizens. Had the pump stopped, the damage and suffering would have been incalculable. Now the sewer inspector has appealed to the general council, and we trust the board of public works will heed the council's instructions. We cannot believe the board's conduct is dictated by soreness at Judge Reed's decision that the general council and not the board of public works has authority to appoint the inspector.

Talk as we will about the simplicity of American democracy, there is something radically wrong when a man like Senator Spooner of Wisconsin, after devoting sixteen years of his life to public service, must resign before his term expires in order to earn a competence for himself and family, that he may not become a public charge, or a burden on his children, in his old age. He is past sixty and one of the finest lawyers in America. Yet, he has continued in office drawing $5,000 annually, when he might have been earning $50,000 a year, as a corporation lawyer. Every few days we hear of some great intellect, that should have been devoted to the country's cause, engaged in the industrial field. There are other sacrifices than financial that a man must make to hold public office, and few are willing to submit. The country can not afford to let all the brains get away from the public service. There is, perhaps, more than one reason why the senate is composed chiefly of rich men.

No newspaper suppresses news, whether that news is favorable or unfavorable to its chosen policies. The fact that a sheet allows as important a news item as a London county council election, in which the policies of 18 years standing are overwhelmingly rebuked, to go unmentioned for three days except to bear false witness against papers that do publish it, shows that the particular sheets do not fit the definition of a newspaper.

tation facilities has never existed in Chicago.

M. O. IN LONDON.

The control of the London county council has been taken away from the municipal owners. The taxpayers have revolted against the council and have overcome them. They have put up for eighteen years with an administration which, in the name of "progress," has steadily increased taxes and indebtedness without conferring corresponding benefits. The last project of the "progressives" was to spend $120,000,000 in a grand electrification scheme and to drive private enterprise out of the electrical business. That was more than could be endured. If the scheme were to be put through it would mean the utter loss of individual initiative in what is, comparatively speaking, a new field. It would mean bad service to the public through the preservation of antiquated methods. A municipality has not the courage of an individual. It does not throw obsolete machinery on the scrap heap to put in new machinery and better the service. So the taxpayers vetoed the project and turned out the men who were behind it.

Municipal ownership theories have been given a fair trial in the world's greatest city. They have been carried to the delightful point of municipal billiards and dominoes. The taxpayers might have stood that, but they could not stand the reckless extravagance which prevailed in nearly every department of local government. They could not endure the poor business methods which characterized every undertaking the county council entered upon. It had no business ability. It could not make its enterprises meet the cost of operation, where private management would have made a profit.

In the attempt to show that it was able to make both ends meet, the county council has had to resort to curious tricks of book-keeping. It has tried to hide from the public its inability to manage commercial undertakings. In London and in other English cities the high standard of integrity of municipal government has been lowered through the corrupting influence of municipal ownership. Municipal governments which used to be able to discharge with ability and without reproach the simpler civic duties of former days are now betraying incapacity and are no longer trusted.

It is fortunate that the decline of municipal ownership in England has begun before American cities had committed themselves. They have no excuse now for imitating the excesses into which English municipalities have plunged and are now beginning to repent of.—Chicago Tribune.

What Osteopathy Will Do.
There are but few people who have not heard of Osteopathy, also of some of its achievements. But there are far too many who have accredited it with being good for only those conditions from which they have been cured, or which have come under their observation. Not infrequently there is mutual surprise when one who was cured of rheumatism meets another who has been cured of asthma, or constipation. This is a homely, but very true illustration.

Personally, I have cured chronic cases of constipation, rheumatism, asthma, nervousness, neuralgia and headaches for people whom you know well, and the value of the Osteopathic treatment is but coming generally known in Paducah, as it should be.

I should like to talk with you at any time about your particular case, and know I can cite you to some of your friends who will attest to what the treatment has done for them in similar diseases. Come to my office, 516 Broadway, or phone 1407, any time from 9 to 12 or 2 to 5 p. m.

In Police Court.
For resisting Constable A. C. Shelton Saturday when he went to levy a specific attachment for household goods, Mary Elliott, colored, was fined $10 in the police court this morning.

It was a regular knock down and drag out fight, according to the testimony. Shelton and his assistant came out victorious, the woman wearing a bandage over a swollen fist.

Other cases: William Albritton, colored, malicious cutting, continued to Monday; Edwin Peak, for flourishing a pistol at Rexie Raper, continued; Roy Thompson, drunkenness, $1 and costs.

Rehkopf Case.
Suits, aggregating $54,000, were ordered by E. W. Bagby, referee in bankruptcy, entered against the American-German National bank by Trustee Cecil Reed, of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company. He is instructed to bring one by March 15, the second by March 23.

The first is for recovery of double the amount of interest alleged to have been collected in the past two years as a usurious rate, the second is for goods for which the bank held receipts tendered as collateral for debts the bankrupt, E. Rehkopf Saddlery company.

In the examination of the bankrupt it was discovered, it is alleged, that the bank charged more than the legal 6 per cent interest and collected $14,000 at such rates. The bank held $26,000 worth of goods received just before assignment as collateral for debts.

Men Who Say They Are Detectives Approach Van Duzer.

Washington, March 5.—Considerable excitement was caused at the capitol today by an attempt on the part of men who claimed to be private detectives to arrest Representative Clarence D. Van Duzer, of Nevada. Mr. Van Duzer has been unable to attend the meetings of the house during the present session, but appeared today. He was arranging his mileage accounts when the men who said they were detectives approached and attempted to place him under arrest.

The sergeant-at-arms of the house, upon being informed of the condition of affairs, sent an assistant, who informed the detectives that unless they at once released Mr. Van Duzer they would themselves be arrested and be taken before the bar of the house. The warning proved sufficient to obtain for Mr. Van Duzer his liberty, and the men withdrew from the capitol.

Modern Servant's Position.
Roy L. McCordell tells some plain truths in his article "Help! Help! Help! In the October Everybody's."

"What is the position of a servant girl in the ordinary middle-class family? She is in a home, but it is not her home. Her room is in the garret if in a house, or a dark, unventilated closet that barely holds a cot, if in an apartment house. She eats what is sent from the table to the kitchen when the family is through. She hears all the sordid family quarrels and has no respect in many cases for those who regard her as an inferior. She is discouraged in the matter of visitors, and irregularly she has one evening a week out."

"In any other occupation in life a working girl has her self-respect, and, to a greater or less degree, the respect of others. Then why do you wonder that priests and missionaries, guardians, relatives, and friends of working girls listen but coldly to your appeals to get you a 'good girl'?"

Adding Up Assessment.

RIGHTFUL HEIR TO THRONE

Real King of Serbia Reported to Be Living Near New York.

New York, March 5.—Servians of this city and New Jersey are authority for the statement that a truly sworn and authenticated King of Serbia, rightful heir to the throne now occupied by King Peter Karageorgevitch, is living near New York, and is awaiting the favorable moment to go to Serbia and claim his own. This is King Stephen Dusanovic, scion of the house of Dusan, which has been in existence since the twelfth century.

Other claimants to the Serbian throne have appeared in America since the assassination of King Alexander in 1903, but as to this last one, it is stated by certain Servians here, members of the Greek Orthodox St. Nicholas Cathedral congregation, that King Stephen has taken oaths here within the last three months as ruler of Serbia, and that his claims to the throne have been reviewed and sanctioned by some ecclesiastical authority of Serbia. Those who have faith in Stephen declare that he is not depending upon assassination or bloody revolution to gain the throne. He is simply awaiting the time when a change of temper of the people who are now under Peter's rule will force that monarch to vacate the throne. Then he will go to Serbia and place himself at the head of the people.

RESEMBLES ROCKEFELLER.

One of the Jurors Selected to Try Standard Oil.

Chicago, March 5.—The selection of a jury to pass on evidence against the Standard Oil company of Indiana, on trial before Judge Landis in the United States district court here, on a charge of having received concessions from the Chicago and Alton Railroad company, was completed late this afternoon. Less than five hours was consumed in securing the jury. Assistant District Attorney J. H. Wilkerson probably will make the opening address for the government tomorrow morning, and it is said that the taking of testimony will begin during the day. One of the jurors selected, C. A. Frederick of Joliet, was the subject of much comment in the courtroom, owing to his striking resemblance in appearance to John D. Rockefeller.

Got Eight Cent Check.

Atlantic City.—For working hard with a pick and shovel on Atlantic avenue Louis Keuhle, the acknowledged political leader of the resort and a millionaire, has been paid 8 cents by the contractors for whom he performed the arduous labor. Mr. Keuhle has had the check neatly framed, and it occupies a conspicuous place in his office, when he points to it with pride. Beneath the frame is the familiar quotation, "Labor Is Its Own Reward."

Mr. Keuhle earned 8 cents through honest toil by digging the first shovelfuls of earth when the paving operations on Atlantic avenue were started, about a month ago. He was on the job promptly. In order not to be late, he arrived on the scene in a big automobile. As none of his fellow laborers owned automobiles they walked or came by trolley. This made no difference to Mr. Keuhle, who, throwing aside his fur-lined overcoat called for a shovel, and went to work while a crowd of admiring friends cheered. After half an hour Mr. Keuhle had made a great hole in the street, and then he gracefully retired from the scene of action nursing two badly blistered hands.

PEOPLE AND SOCIAL EVENTS

Richardson Jones.

The marriage of Miss Kate Lee Richardson and Mr. Oscar Bertrand Jones, of San Bernardino, Cal., was impressively solemnized this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the First Baptist church, in the presence of a large number of friends of the popular young couple. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Calvin W. Thompson, pastor of the church. Miss Courtie Puryear played the Mendelssohn wedding march both as a professional and recessional. The only attendants were the ushers: Messrs. Frank H. Hecker, of St. Louis; Eugene Richardson, Paul E. Stutz, J. C. Rogers, W. W. Rogers, Durward Sutton.

The bride, a piquant brunette, looked especially pretty in a stylish tailored coat suit of blue cloth with a blue silk blouse. Her hat and gloves were in harmony with the attractive costume. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations.

After an informal reception at the Richardson home on South Third street, Mr. and Mrs. Jones left at noon for St. Louis where they will stay a few days with relatives. They will, also, stop in Los Angeles where the bridegroom's brother, Mr. E. B. Jones, is living, and will be at home in San Bernardino after March 16. They received a number of beautiful bridal gifts.

The marriage unites two well-known and popular young people, belonging to prominent Paducah families. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Richardson, and is a charming and lovable girl.

Mr. Jones is the youngest son of the late E. B. Jones, of Paducah, and is an exceedingly popular young man. He has made his home in California for the last five years. He and his brother, Mr. Harry Jones, have a large photographic supplies house in San Bernardino. Before leaving here he held a responsible position in the American-German National bank, and was for a time the clerk of McCracken county, filling out the unexpired term of his father, who died in office.

Missionary Society Elects Officers.

The Junior Warden Missionary society of the Broadway Methodist church has elected the following officers for the new conference year: President, Miss Adine Morton; vice president, Mrs. William Eades; recording secretary, Miss Eleanor Wright; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. H. Sugg; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Martin; agent for the Advocate, Miss Lucella Smith.

The meeting was held on Saturday afternoon with the Misses Smith, 533 North Seventh street, and was postponed one from February 23.

U. D. C. Building at Jamestown.

The Paducah chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be interested in the following clipping from the Richmond, Va., Times-Dispatch:

"The Daughters of the Confederacy building at the Jamestown Exposition grounds is reported as being nearly finished, and a pretty representation of 'Beauvoir,' President Davis' home in Mississippi, after which it is modeled. It will be ready for its furnishing early in March, and Mr. Biggs, of this city, has generously offered the use of the furniture necessary for it. Mrs. N. V. Randolph, Mrs. W. R. McKenny and Mrs. Frank Anthony Walker, of Norfolk, will doubtless be present at the building when the contractor is prepared to turn it over, and will look after its being put in proper shape for the reception of visitors. Mrs. Williams, of Louisville, Ky., will have charge of the safe, at which southern meals will be served, and there will be several bedrooms in the building."

Delphic Club Elects Officers.

The Delphic club met this morning in regular session at the club room in the Carnegie library. The program for the day was omitted as it was the date for the annual election of officers and other pending business. None of the present officers who are: Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips president; Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, vice president; and Mrs. Frank L. Scott, secretary and treasurer, was eligible for re-election as they had served the allotted two years. Those elected for the coming year are: Mrs. Mildred Davis, president; Mrs. George C. Wallace, vice president; Miss Helen Lowry, secretary and treasurer.

It was decided to take Egypt for the next year's course of study, and the program committee appointed were: Mrs. George Flournoy, chairman; Mrs. Edmund Post, and Mrs. Elbridge Palmer. The year-book will be arranged by the committee and will be ready by the time the club disbands in April for the summer.

Handsome Reception in Honor of Mrs. Sydney Loeb.

Notably beautiful in all of its appointments was the reception yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock given by Mrs. Reuben Loeb introducing her son's wife, Mrs. Sydney H. Loeb, a charming St. Valentine bride and a popular Oklahoma City girl, who made a delightful impression on the guests gathered to meet her. Mr. and Mrs. Loeb have just returned from an extended eastern bridal trip.

The Loeb house, one of the old-time handsome ante-bellum houses, is charmingly fitted for entertaining. The double hall, stairway and spacious drawing-rooms were effectively decorated throughout with the graceful southern snail. Pink and white carnations and roses were used in the reception rooms in pretty profusion, emphasizing the pink and white color scheme. The electric lights and candleabra were all shaded in pink. In the drawing-room the table was an artistic arrangement, handsomely covered with lace over pink. From the chandelier above extended loops of pink ribbon and tulle to each end of the table and suspended over the center was a white dove bearing a cluster of pink roses. The center-piece was an effective arrangement of white carnations in a low crown-shaped shell bowl that encircled the handsome bronze drop light with myriad electric bulbs.

The guests were welcomed in the hall by Mrs. Adolph Weil and Mrs. Victor Voris. Receiving with Mrs. Reuben Loeb and Mrs. Sydney Loeb in the front drawing-room were: Mrs. Abe Livingston, Mrs. E. Feis, Mrs. Herman Friedman.

In a side alcove of the hall was a prettily arranged punch table where Miss Elizabeth Rothschild, of St. Louis, and Miss Mamie Dryfus presided.

In the second drawing-room was Mrs. Louis Rubel, assisted by a bevy of pretty out-of-town girls: Miss Carrie Weil, of Cleveland, Ohio; Miss Stella Levy, of New Orleans; Miss Pearl Blum, of Nashville, Tenn. The delightful 2-course luncheon served here was an attractive emphasis of the pink and white color-motif in the individual ices and cakes.

Mrs. Reuben Loeb was very handsome in a reception toilette of black Chantilly lace trimmed with duchesse lace.

Mrs. Sydney Loeb wore her wedding gown, a beautiful imported creation of white silk tulle over white satin, heavily encrusted with Irish point lace. She is a strikingly handsome, graceful, gracious and charming in manner.

The toilettes of the receiving guests and visitors were especially handsome and added to the brilliancy of the scene. There were over one hundred guests present.

Mrs. Hugh Thomas Brown, who was taken to the Riverside hospital yesterday, seriously ill from appendicitis, was operated upon this morning at 10 o'clock, and is resting as comfortably as could be desired this afternoon. The conditions are favorable for her recovery. Drs. P. H. Stewart and S. B. Pulliam are the physicians in charge.

Mrs. Brown came here last week from Columbia, Tenn., to see her husband, Mr. H. T. Brown, construction engineer of the Paducah Traction company, and was taken ill on Monday with appendicitis. It is the second attack she has had in a short time. Mr. Brown's mother arrived from Columbia last night to be with the family.

Rev. David C. Wright returned home last night from Louisville and Henderson and left early this morning for Memphis to make a series of noonday Lenten talks to men for the St. Andrew's Brotherhood of that city. The Rev. Mr. Bagwell, of Fulton, who filled Mr. Wright's pulpit for him Sunday, will hold the Lenten services at Grace church this week during Mr. Wright's absence.

Mr. John Sherwin Mrs. Betty Sherwin and Miss Georgia Sherwin, are expected home this evening from Asheville, N. C., where they went last week for a short stay.

Miss Edith Smith, of Hillsboro, Ohio, who has spent the winter with her sister, Mrs. David C. Wright, will leave tonight for her home. Miss Smith has been a popular visitor in Paducah.

Dr. Ernest L. Stevens, of Paris, who has been sick from typhoid fever, is able to be out.

Sluceways of the World.
Sluceways of the world! A low, deep babel in a dozen different tongues. Close squeezed here are races that have been apart for tens of thousands of years—races, now to be slowly welded together. How absolutely different are the faces. A broad, stolid Polish face close by an excited little Italian mother who fills the air with gestures. Gestures rise from all the sluceways. For the southeast of Europe roves gestures, and it is from the southeast that most of our immigrants come. Three-fourths are from Italy, Austria, Hungary, Bohemia, Poland, and South Russia. Three-fourths are peasants from farms and little hamlets. Three-fourths are unskilled laborers bringing an average of only $22 each. Three-fourths are men under forty coming first alone, then wives and children to follow them.

HONEST PACKING

SHALL BE FOLLOWED BY DARK TOBACCO GROWERS.

Instructions Sent to Prizers Concerning Hogheads That Show Damage.

Guthrie, Ky., March 5.—The following instructions have been sent to the prizers for the Dark Tobacco association:

"The object of this is to call your attention to the following instructions, given the general inspector by the executive committee at its last meeting. When a hoghead shows damage by reason of bad packing, you shall notify the prizer, the salesman and the owner of the tobacco; have the damage assessed and collect such damage from the prizer."

This means that the inspection will be thorough, impartial, and will therefore show up the careless and dishonest packer, it being the committee's intention, that the association's reputation for honest packing and honest sampling shall be maintained. It also means that all bad packing will be reported to the committee and the grading of the prizers will be based on these reports.

Hollowness of "Agencies."

"Let us take New York as typical of all American cities," says Roy L. McCordell in "Help! Help! Help!" in the October Everybody's, "in the matter of supply and demand in servant girls. Let us go to an 'Agency.'"

"There is no emotion about an agency, either in those who conduct it or those who frequent it. Vain it is to pour forth your trouble to the shabby man or jaded, flabby woman who conduct an agency. They have heard all these stories so many times. They might sit down and say, ahead of you, what you are going to say. But they listen. It is part of their trade to listen."

"Then they lead you to a frowsy back room where some twenty women sit, wearing twenty shocking bad hats. The agent runs glibly through your story. You want a woman for general housework. You will give so much—you will give anything if you get a really good girl; you will treat her, oh, so kind."

"You wonder why the twenty impassive females do not throw themselves at you all at once and say, 'Take me I am yours!' But the twenty remain restrained themselves. They do not want general housework. They are cooks and they 'always got $100 a month.' They are landladies and they 'always got $35 a month.' They are parlor-maids and they 'always got $35,' or they are nursery-maids who 'always got—oh, will, what's the use!'"

FOR SALE.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER

INTERNAL PARASITES.

Cooper's New Discovery has taught me many things, not least of which is that parasites or tape worms as they are called are responsible for an immense amount of suffering. Thousands of these creatures have been brought to me by people who have taken the New Discovery and I now know that an immense amount of supposed stomach trouble is caused in reality by one of these parasites. A man or woman may be afflicted in this manner for years and not realize the true cause of their suffering. When I first sold Cooper's New Discovery I did not know that the medicine would remove this trouble. I have since found that it invariably does so. The following letter is a fair sample of the symptoms as experienced by an individual thus affected:

"I was always tired. My stomach bloated and the slightest exertion made me sick, weak and dizzy. My appetite was variable and a good night's sleep was unknown to me. When I awoke in the mornings I had a bad taste in my mouth and a coated tongue. I heard of the wonderful benefits that were being derived from Cooper's New Discovery, and decided to try it."

"The horrible tape worm, sixty feet long that had been sapping my life away; passed from my system alive and quivering after I had taken three doses. Now I have a splendid appetite, every trace of stomach trouble has disappeared, and my digestion is good. I sleep well and am gaining in strength every day." River Stages.

Chattanooga	35.8	1.3	rise

Cincinnati	28.6	0.9	rise
Evansville	25.4	0.7	rise
Florence	14.5	0.1	rise
Johnsonville	25.4	1.0	rise
Louisville	10.0	0.4	rise

Pittsburg	6.5	1.2	fall
St. Louis	13.9	0.3	fall
St. Vernon	24.7	1.1	rise
Paducah	30.5	1.5	rise

At the stage of the river now, 30.5, it begins to look as if it did in January. The river rose 1.5 in the last 24 hours. The wharf at Clarksville is heavily loaded with freight despite the fact that wagons were hauling all day yesterday. The stage of the river here March 5 last year was 19.1.

The Buttrick did not get away from Nashville until yesterday and did not arrive here until this morning, 24 hours late. After taking on a big trip here the Buttrick left at noon for Clarksville.

The Jim Duffy will be let off the ways today or tomorrow. Some time this week the Condor will get off as caulking was the biggest part of the repairs. The Maude Kilgore will get a new hull and they have begun to close in the Clyde.

The City of Memphis arrived this morning from the Tennessee river and went down to Joppy to unload part of the freight.

After a side trip to Joppy for several carloads of freight, the Chattanooga left at noon today for Chattanooga.

The Dick Fowler departed on time for Cairo this morning and will return tonight at the same hour.

The Evansville trade was handled by the Joe Fowler today ahead on schedule time.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville and Mt. Vernon will continue rising during the next 24 to 36 hours. At Paducah and Cairo will continue rising during the next several days.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth will continue rising during the next 24 hours, passing the 25 foot stage at Riverton and Johnsonville tonight.

The Mississippi from Chester to above Cairo will continue to fall slowly during the next 24 hours.

The Wabash at Mt. Carmel, no material change during the next 24 hours.

FARMER'S BODY

DISCOVERED IN CLARK'S RIVER YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Two Big Sacks of Oats Held Him Down—Funeral Took Place at Once in Stice Cemetery.

Lying on his back just below McCoy's ford in Clark's river with two big sacks of oats clasped in his stiffened fingers and lying across his chest, the body of Samuel Farmer, who was drowned there Sunday, February 24, was found yesterday afternoon and was buried in the Stice cemetery. The man had on a heavy overcoat. Farmer came to Paducah the Friday before with a cow to sell. He disposed of it and made some purchases. He started home Sunday, and although warned by a man not to attempt to ford Clark's river, he drove his team of mules into the stream. The wagon broke apart, and the mules with the front wheels swam across, and were found the next Tuesday tangled up in some bushes. Farmer had $5 in his trousers' pocket when his body was discovered.

Some of "Sunset" Cox's Satire.

In the March American Magazine, J. M. Tarbell tells the story of the efforts that were made in Grant's time to reduce the high tariffs that were established during the war.

"There was a pretty general frank admission that the war tariffs ought not to go on," says Miss Tarbell, "but if you get it for your constituents you must give it to me for mine."

It was a phase which gave great joy to "Sunset" Cox, and he mocked at it in a speech long remembered:

"Let us be to each other instruments of reciprocal rapine," said Mr. Cox. "Michigan steals on copper; Maine on lumber; Pennsylvania on iron; North Carolina on peanuts; Massachusetts on cotton goods; Connecticut on hair pins; New Jersey on spool threads; Louisiana on sugar and so on. Why should the gentlemen from Maryland steal coal from them? True, but a comparative few get the benefit, and it comes out of the body of the people; true it tends to high prices, but does not steal; encourage industry? Let us as moralists, if not as politicians, rewrite the eighth commandment: Thou shalt steal; because stealing is right when common."

"As I am a Representative of New York, and Onondaga, with the aid of the foreign solar, aryan, evaporates salt, ought I not also to steal to help Onondaga? Stealing by tariffs, Mr. Chairman is as DeQuincy proved of murder, a fine art. If everybody stole from everybody there is then any reproach to a body? If everybody is a burglar is there any need for anybody to lock up houses?"

"How happy we should be when we can all look each other in the face here, clasp hands, as now I look into the face of the gentleman from Massachusetts and say: God bless you, my brother; you have stolen from me, and I from you; let us love one another. Then the little unprotected pigs, who are crowded by the big pigs, quietly eating out of the trough, will equal no more to be let in, for on this idea all shall be fed by swallowing each other's food; and when all are fed, no one loses and we shall be happy."

NOT AFTER MONEY.

Says Son of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy.

Deadwood S. D., March 5.—Regarding the report that Mrs. Eddy, in an effort to stop Glover's suit, has sent Rev. I. C. Tomlinson with an offer of $250,000 if he will stop the suit, and to make no objection to any will his mother may make, Glover says: "I have received no such offer and would not consider sue him offer if it were made."

Glover said: "This suit was not brought by Glover for money or for the purpose of obtaining any money from Mrs. Eddy through such means, but honesty and conscientiousness for the protection of Mrs. Eddy and her property."

Tomlinson was here in January when he spent some time in Paducah, but he has not been made public.

FERTILIZER TRUST WINS.

Cannot Be Removed to Tennessee for Trial.

Washington, March 5.—The fertilizer trust cases, involving the right of the United States to compel the removal of the indicted officials of the fertilizer companies, constituting the alleged trust, from Virginia to Tennessee for trial, were decided today by the supreme court of the United States adversely to the government's contention. There were eleven cases before the court, and all arose out of indictments returned by the federal grand jury to the middle district of Tennessee sitting at Nashville, which charged the defendants with conspiring to regulate the price of fertilizers in the states of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee in violation of the anti-trust law of 1890. When taken into custody by the Virginia marshal the defendants appealed to the United States circuit court for writs of habeas corpus on the ground that the Tennessee court under the constitution was incompetent to try them for an offense which had not been committed in that jurisdiction.

BANDIT KILLED.

Member of Rurales Dies During the Pitched Battle.

Cullatan, Mexico, March 5.—In a pitched battle which occurred in the Mochis hills, between three members of the rurales and the notorious bandit, Perfrido B. Obaso, the latter was mortally wounded and one of the rurales instantly killed. Obaso was shot through the bowels and cannot live. Obaso has been working alone, committing many depredations through his district and rurales have been on his trail for days. They encountered him in the Mochis hills and the fight opened with the bandit concealed between sheltering rocks. About sixty shots were exchanged. It was while trying to change from his shelter to a position higher up the hill that the bandit received his death wounds.

Immigrant Mother's Plight.
Writing of Ellis Island scenes in "The Men Who Are to Vote," in the October Everybody's, Ernest Poole says:

"In this same hall an old Austrian mother was kept five days. She had lost the railroad ticket her son had sent her. Again and again they telegraphed to the small town where she said he lived, but no reply came.

"He is so fine, so strong, so rich—my Fritz!" she kept saying. "This fine dress and this bonnet he sent me. To Austria he wrote me every week. Surely—surely he will come!"

"She grew worse and worse. She could not sleep at night, and all day she sat by the window watching the Manhattan sky-scrapers. Her face grew haggard and lined with tears. She was so bewildered, she could no longer answer questions. The name of the town was all she could give. There were eighteen towns of this name in various States; but the name of her son's State she had forgotten. All she knew was that Fritz lived in a town 'quite near New York.' Town after town was telegraphed to. Still no reply. At last it seemed hopeless and the old lady was about to be deported.

"Suddenly came a telegram: 'Hold mother! Am coming!' And four hours later another: 'Don't deport my mother. I have plenty to support her. Am coming by fast train. Hold her!'

"And later that afternoon a young man, sleepless and wide-eyed, arrived—from Kansas! 'Quite near New York.'"

Mayor Johnson, of Cleveland, believes that the virtual victory of the 3-cent fare in his city will eventually lead to free street cars.

NOTHING HEARD
OF COMMISSION

Railroad Men Receive no Notice of Meeting

Congestion of Local Yards Caused by Lack of Motive Power on Line.

ACCIDENTS CAUSE MUCH DELAY.

Illinois Central officials who are here seeking to remedy the congested condition of freight, have little time to bother about what the interstate commerce commission intends to do in this end of the state, and are apparently not greatly concerned.

"Two government men, I don't know just where from, have been in this end of the state for a week or two, but we have not been notified of any meeting of the commission," one official stated. "we presume the officials will receive proper notification in plenty of time. It is true that the commission might have agents looking over the ground previous to its meeting.

"As to the shortage in cars, this has been conspicuous all over the country this season, even more than last. The congested condition of freight on the Louisville division is caused directly by lack of sufficient motive power."

More Bad Luck.
So congested is the condition of freight traffic on the Louisville division of the Illinois Central that three derailments have occurred in three days, and as a last straw the wrecking outfit was wrecked this morning in the Paducah yards.

Saturday night at Horse Branch a freight derailment delayed all traffic and Sunday afternoon a second wreck at Claxton on the Louisville division laid everything out for several hours, and besides with tearing up rails and smashing cars the train ploughed into the depot and tore off two doors.

Last night two miles east of Keokuk on the Cairo extension another freight derailment occurred. Freight, No. 875, Engineer Bob Bean, went into the ditch. Fortunately the accident occurred after both east and west bound passenger trains had passed. Little damage was done and after picking up the cars the wrecker started home again.

While being switched into a siding at the shop yards a caboose was backed into the outfit before it got into the "clear." One of the boarding cars in the wrecking train was struck in the side and badly demolished. The wrecker was not put out of commission.

FORTUNE COMES TO WORKER.

But He Doesn't Quit While Expecting It.

Redlands, Cal.—L. W. Gilbert, employed at dumping oranges into the grader for the Golden Orange association of this city, received notice that he had fallen heir to $150,000, which will be paid to him by the administrator of the estate of his uncle, John Tribia, a Frenchman, who died in San Bernardino three years ago. The estate has just been settled.

At the time of his uncle's death Gilbert knew he would receive the fortune, but kept at his work. He says he feels better when he works. He is 30 years of age, unmarried, and lives in a tumble down shack near the railroad. He speaks in four languages, and has been court interpreter in both French and Spanish. He is also a graduate physician and practiced in France, and in San Bernardino up to four years ago, but did not like it.

His benefactor was his mother's only brother. Other members of the family are dead. Besides $150,000 cash, there is left to him a farm near Decatur, Ill., valued at $50,000 and two residences in San Bernardino valued at $30,000.

On receipt of the money Gilbert will leave for Decatur, but will not live on the farm. He will probably return here. He says he has never married, having in his profession seen too many of the fatalities of the opposite sex, but says he may yet marry. Gilbert is well spoken of by his employer, C. M. Brown.

The Stranger in Paris.

No one is ever quite free from its meshes. Have you ever been to Paris? At a hotel or lodging house of any sort? Then you have seen again and again, one of those mysterious agents of the secret police. Usually he is an old little man, dressed in rusty black, red of nose and quick-tempered—so humble a little man that you might easily overlook him. A small ink-bottle hangs by a string from his waistcoat and a yellow penholder is thrust in between two of the buttons. He slips into the hotel or
